BREIF SUMMARY OF CURRENT EVENTS

Brief Summary of events is presented by- Morgan Scott, Development Services Operations Manager

-Apron Seal. That job is actually under FAA investigation right now. They have asked us to determine both a short term and long term solution. Short term solution, we have begun sweeping more regularly and have contacted a vacuum sweeping company as opposed to a bristle sweep which has a tendency to create more of a problem. Starting middle to end of next week the vacuum company will begin. Long term solution, first: FAA is looking into us contacting the contractor, second: moving forward with ACIP funds. Should the situation not get resolved with the contractor the FAA is willing to commit up to a million dollars as early as next year.

-On-call design consultant. Is with the FAA for review right now

-Airport Mechanic. Hoping to get it reviewed very soon, Dan Lueder explained more details on how the contract will work.

-AWOS. Waiting on the on-call design consultant, their first project will be the AWOS.

-GPS Approach- No more information at this time, expects to be published by next spring. ADOT will be painting the GPS approach

-Beacon and windsock- with the city procurement department now, should advertise as early as next week.
