“Cottonwood’s Youth Advisory Commission Lends a Hand.”

On Saturday, April 26, the Cottonwood Youth Advisory Commission endured the cold rain and winds to help lend a hand at the City of Cottonwood’s Community Wide Clean Up. The event, held at 1142 W Mingus Avenue, is put on in an effort to help residents clean up debris and create a defensible space around their home prior to fire season. The Youth Commission arrived bright and early to help local residents unload and dispose of unwanted items and trash from their vehicles. Among the items accepted were bagged trash, household appliances, furniture and yard trimmings. Other items such as mattresses, televisions and tires were also accepted for a small fee.
