Call to Order

The meeting was called to order in the Cottonwood Recreation Center conference room by Charles Novak at 6:30 PM on March 2nd, 2015.

New Business

- a) Kids at Hope, Dr. Paul Tighe Superintendent- Dr. Paul Tighe visited the Cottonwood Youth Advisory Commission to inform the Commission about Kids at Hope and its mission. The Commission discussed ways to motivate students at Mingus Union High School, including such ideas as an assembly and wristbands with a slogan on them. The Commission also plans on coming up with events to hold that will aim to motivate younger children. The Commission will continue the discussion in the upcoming meeting.
- b) Mayor's March a Mile for Meals- The Commission is supporting the Mayor's March a Mile for Meals event on March 8th, where volunteers will participate in the event from 8 to 10:00 AM on March 28th. Volunteers include Kirsten Conover, Charles Novak, Sirilak Saengsawang, Krista Earl, Gunner Tillman, and Ryan Young.
- c) End of the Year Trip- The Youth Commission briefly discussed its end of the year trip. However, the Commission decided to focus on what events it will support and hold, such as an anti-drug campaign with MAT Force, before the end of the year trip is decided. More events will be discussed in the upcoming meeting.

Old Business

- a) Rec. Center Teen Night- The Youth Commission continued planning for the Teen Night it will be hosting from 7 to 10:00 PM on March 21st. The Commission discussed fees for entrance and concessions, as well as what activities will be organized for the event. Activities include laser tag, an open gym, a game room, and a movie. Jasmine Banks volunteered to design a flier. Volunteers for the Teen Night include Kirsten Conover, Charles Novak, Sirilak Saengsawang, Even Snyder, Jasmine Banks, Gunner Tillman, Gabrielle Makuch, Riley McClellan, Ryan Young, and Sarah Ortiz.

Adjournment

Seeing no further business, Charles Novak adjourned the meeting at 7:51 PM.
