Called to Order

Mayra Garcia called the meeting to order at 6:45 at the Cottonwood Recreation Center.

New Business

1. The Commission would like to hold a Teen Night at the Cottonwood Recreation Center. (Tera Ponce motioned and Payton Cooke 2nd)
2. Easter Egg Hunt, April 3rd, Mayra will see how much it cost for a bunny suit and to print pictures. (Mayra Garcia motioned and Alexis Knowles 2nd)
3. Skate Park Concert (Roller Derby idea), May 7th at 6:00 PM. Sell ice cream sandwiches and drumsticks. See if Braskies can play music. (Andrew Hickey motioned and Chloe Kramer 2nd)
4. March on Meth, the people who will not be able to show up: Brady, Staci, Jill. Wear CYAC shirts.
5. Commission agrees to go to San Diego for the end of the year trip. (Jill Peterson motioned Staci Hewitson 2nd)
6. Habitat for Humanity, commission members felt it would be best to hold off due to an already busy schedule.

Old Business

1. Alice in Wonderland was a success and the commission felt it is worth doing again. After a program evaluation commissioners felt they should arrive earlier and have more members watching the line for the next movie. They all agreed they had no idea it would be such a big hit.
2. Diaper Drive was a little slow this year. Members felt they should focus on one organization to help with the drive.

Adjournment

Seeing no further business, Mayra Garcia adjourned the meeting at 8:00pm.
