FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

04/16/2014

On 04/15/14 at about 3:07 in the afternoon, CHRISTOPHE ROSE, a 33 year old male, was arrested under suspicion of DUI after Cottonwood Police responded to a single vehicle rollover accident in front of the old Pizza Hut on South Main Street. Rose was turning right out of Food City, gunned it, lost control and hit the guy wire by the APS pole and rolled his truck onto its side. There were no injuries. PBT was .124% on scene. An investigation currently on-going.

In an unrelated incident, another vehicle accident occurred on 718 S. Main at approximately 4:25 PM, when 70 year old Daniel Godack of Camp Verde, while parked outside of the dry cleaners, reported his foot slipped off the brake pedal and launched his pickup truck into the front of the building. Godack's vehicle sustained minor damage while heavy damage was reported to the business. No injuries were reported and no criminal charges filed. (No photos available at this time)
