

Cottonwood Police Department Press Release

06/23/15

For Immediate Release

On 06/22/15, 35 year old Cottonwood resident, William Cory Brady, was arrested for Aggravated Luring of a Minor for Sexual Exploitation, 13 counts of Furnishing Obscene Items to Minors, and 2 counts of Sexual Exploitation of a Minor, after Cottonwood Police Detectives discovered Brady had been sending illicit photos of himself to a 16 year old whom he had just recently met. According to Police reports, 35 year old Brady met the 16 year old victim when the victim went to see the equestrian facility where Brady was employed. During the next week Brady sent several illicit photos to the victim whom he had been advised was only 16 years of age. Cottonwood Police were tipped off when a parent happened to see one of the photos and confronted the 16 year old. During the investigation it was discovered during the prior week over 2,000 messages had been exchanged between the 2 parties. Brady was subsequently arrested and remanded to the YCSO Jail on the above listed charges where he is currently being held on a $100,000.00 Bond.
