Cottonwood Public Library's Call of Authors

The Cottonwood Public Library is in search of local Verde Valley authors to participate in the 2014 Author's Forum. This 2nd annual Author's Forum will be held on Saturday, August 23rd, 2014 from 11:00 am to 1:00 pm at the Cottonwood Parks and Recreation Center at 150 South Sixth Street. Author registration ends July 11th.

The purpose of this forum is to gather several local authors in one place to bring attention to the fact that the Verde Valley offers excellent literary talent. As an author, you have the opportunity to sell your books, chat with patrons, and personalize their copy of your book with your signature.

The library received positive feedback last year from the authors and the patrons who attended. The authors enjoyed visiting with patrons and also with other authors. The patrons appreciated the chance to meet the authors and get their books autographed.

The change in venue this year allows more authors to participate. Last year the forum was held at the library and authors were turned away due to lack of space.

If you are a Verde Valley author interested in participating in the 2014 Author's Forum, please call Krysta at 928-340-2782 or Mary at 928-340-2781 by July 11, 2014 or stop by the library. The library is located at 100 S. 6th St. in Cottonwood.
