Book Signing by Local Author John “Ole” Olson

Local author John “Ole” Olson will be on hand Saturday, September 7, 2013 from 11:00 am to 12:30 pm for a book signing at the Cottonwood Public Library. His book, Tales From the Wild Blue Yonder: Recipes for Disaster tells stories of Olson’s misadventures in trike gliding. Filled with pictures of flying, stunts, and vistas from the air, the stories themselves are filled with humor that only a man who lives on the edge can create.

Join Olson in the Youth Services Program room for a lively chat. Listen to his tales of flying adventures and have him sign your copy of his book. Visit his web site at www.learntohangglide.com.

The Cottonwood Public Library is located at 100 S 6th Street in Cottonwood. Call 928-340-2780 or go to www.ctwpl.info.

“My name is John “Ole” Olson and I learned to fly in 1981—exactly half my life ago. Since then I have been flying on a near-daily basis and my passion has led me far and wide in pursuit of thrills.” ~ Taken from www.learntohangglide.com, Author John “Ole” Olson’s web page.
