Winner of OneBookAZ Visits Cottonwood Public Library

Winner of the “OneBookAZ Goes Digital” is Arizona author Mike Giglio (pronounced Jill – i – o)! He will visit the Cottonwood Public Library on Saturday, April 19, 2014 at 11:00 am in the Youth Services Program Room. Mike Giglio is the author and creator of The Adventures of Jack Smacker - Little Leaguer children's books series. He lives at his home in Glendale, AZ with his wife and their 2 dogs. He has 2 children and 3 grandchildren. In January 2014, Mike won the Best Children's Book category in the State of Arizona's OnebookAZ Organization. This was awarded to the first Jack Smacker book in the series.

Jack Smacker was written with the goal of helping his oldest granddaughter improve her reading comprehension skills. The book was also written with the idea to take the readers on an adventure while learning facts and educating readers along the way.

Come visit with Mike Giglio at the Cottonwood Public Library located at 100 South 6th Street in Cottonwood. For more information, call the library at 634-7559.
