Cottonwood Public Library Classes for Adults and School Zone for Kids!

If used correctly, social media can be a fantastic tool for small businesses. Which social media you use is a decision only you can make. Not sure where to start? Join Cyndy Ricca on Tuesday, April 8th and June 17th at 4:00 pm at the Cottonwood Public Library for Social Media for Small Businesses class. You'll learn promotional tips and resources for social media marketing for your small business. Class size is limited, so call and sign up today.

Another class in April is How to Plan Your Own Trip, led by Velda Bice with Osher Lifelong Learning Institute. Some trips are scrimped and saved for, and others can be spontaneous and exciting. All trips are meant for adventure, relaxation and enjoyment. Careful planning is the best way to ensure a hassle-free vacation. Join Velda on Thursdays April 3rd, 10th, and the 17th at 10:30 am to learn the tips and tools to plan the perfect vacation. Again, class size is limited, so sign up today.

While you're attending classes, your children can hone their skills with School Zone, an educational software for children grades 1-3. There are lots of educational games for spelling, phonics, and math. They'll have so much fun they won't even realize they're learning!

The library is located at 100 S 6th St in Cottonwood. To register for classes, call 928-634-7559, extension 100.
