Author Kaih Khristé King to speak at the Cottonwood Public Library

The Cottonwood Public Library will be hosting a special presentation and book signing by author Kaih Khristé King this Saturday, July 18th from 10:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. in the meeting room. She will be joined by her friend and artist Blanch Radiance, who will be displaying some of her art as well.

King is the author of many books, eight of which are currently available on Amazon.com. Her latest book, The History of the Hopi From Their Origins In Lemuria, was written in cooperation with Oswald White Bear Fredericks. It is a book full of adventures, Hopi Migrations, Hopi Prophecies, the truth about Kachinas, a look into Clan ceremonies, Hopi Legends and more.

Education came through and by her lifetime experiences. She took her first job in 1943, at 10-years-old, as a performer in show business and remained a featured artist for 50 years. During those years, singing in theaters and nightclubs, she entertained Frank Sinatra, Sammy Davis, Marlon Brando, Groucho Marx and many other notables.

Kaih's presentations are transformational, informative, warm and entertaining, with lots of storytelling and good humor. Please join us this Saturday to hear about her amazing life story.
