ONEBOOKAZ eBook Winners at Cottonwood Public Library

ONEBOOKAZ eBook winners for 2015 have been announced and two of the three authors will be at the Cottonwood Public Library on Saturday, April 18, 2015 from 10:30 am to 12:00 pm. Brought to Arizona in 2002, and coordinated by the Arizona State Library, Archives and Public Records, a division of the Secretary of State, ONEBOOKAZ is an exciting program that brings communities together through literature. As part of the program, an eBook writing competition strives to encourage writing, reading and thoughtful interaction with literature in digital formats.

The winning eBook for ONEBOOKAZ for Kids 2015 is Bruce and the Road to Courage by Gale Leach, a story of a caterpillar frightened of becoming a butterfly because his is terrified of heights. She grew up in California dreaming of becoming a professional writer. The author of several award-winning books, Leach has written and published four books about Bruce the Caterpillar. She currently lives in Sun City West, Arizona, with her husband. To find out more about Leach and her books, visit her at <http://www.galeleach.com/>.

The winning eBook for ONEBOOKAZ for Teens 2015 is Welcome to Harmony by Dan Trumpis, a story of twelve-year-old werewolf Dillon Howell moving to Harmony, California. Trumpis lived most of his life in California before moving to Arizona 6 years ago. He currently lives in Sun Lakes and teaches Communication Arts at C.O. Greenfield in Phoenix, where he is inspiring his 5th grade students with a love of literature and writing.

Meet both of these ONEBOOKAZ eBook winning authors in the Youth Services Program Room at the Cottonwood Public Library at 100 S 6th Street in Cottonwood. Call 928-634-7559 for more information.
