Book Signing by Richard Estrada Corey

Lilly decided she needs to save her six puppies from a life of being taught to fear and hate everything, and bring to an end their future of being security dogs. Thus begins a new life on the streets of Phoenix for Lilly, Buck, and their puppies. They are determined to find paradise for all of them. Will they succeed?

Richard Estrada Corey, author of Bloodline: The Doberman Family has been writing for thirty years. He was born in Los Angeles, California and moved to Phoenix in 1991. A few years later he moved to Camp Verde where he opened his own business in furniture restoration and repair.

Corey also started his own foundation, the Celebration of Youth Foundation, a non-profit to give youth a positive avenue towards success.

You won't want to miss this book signing for Bloodline: The Doberman Family by Richard Estrada Corey on Wednesday, November 21, 2012 from 11:45 am to 1:00 pm in the Youth Services Program Room at the Cottonwood Public Library. The library is located at 100 S. 6th St. in Cottonwood.
