NEW to Cottonwood Public Library! Digital Magazines!

The Yavapai Library Network (YLN) in association with the Yavapai County Free Library District and the Arizona State Library and Archives is pleased to announce the availability of Zinio for Libraries, the world's largest collection of digital magazines.

Zinio for Libraries is a digital magazine subscription service that allows patrons to get popular magazines delivered directly to their device - their iPad, computer, tablet, cell phone, etc.

Patrons of any YLN library now have unlimited access to complete digital magazines including Consumer Reports, Arizona Highways, National Geographic Traveler Interactive and nearly two hundred more. These are all viewable on any Internet-enabled device inside or outside the library. Zinio's unique technology digitally recreates a magazine page for page, including full color pictures, key word article search and interactive elements, such as audio and video.

Some requirements for viewing digital magazines include a library card, an email address to set up an account, Internet Explorer 9 or higher, or Firefox, Google Chrome, or Safari browsers.

Library Journal named the Best Databases for 2012 and Zinio for Libraries was named Best New Database. Library Journal called it a "game-changer."

If you would like to set up an account to start reading digital magazines, go to the Cottonwood Public Library website at www.ctwpl.info and look for the information on Zinio for Libraries. You do need a library card to get started if you don't already have one. Bring a photo I.D. and proof of mailing address to the library at 100 S. 6th St. in Cottonwood. For more information, call 928-340-2285.

If you love magazines, you'll love Zinio for Libraries!
