May 19th Weekend DUI Checkpoint

Cottonwood, Ariz, May 17, 2012—The Cottonwood Police Department will conduct another DUI checkpoint with funding made available through a grant-in-aid provided by the Arizona Governor's Office Of Highway Safety.

During the weekend, on May 19th, the Cottonwood Police Department along with several other law enforcement agencies will be doing a DUI Checkpoint. The purpose for the checkpoint is to take drunk and drugged drivers off the roadways in addition to increasing public awareness of the problems and dangers DUI Alcohol and DUI Drugs have on the commuting public and the surrounding community.

All of the law enforcement agencies of Yavapai County would like to remind everyone that if you drive drunk or drugged you will be arrested. The Cottonwood Police Department along with other law enforcement agencies in Yavapai County, take pride in keeping our roadways safe.
