Press Release:

Police Kept Busy During Thunder Valley Rally

Cottonwood Police Records indicate several arrest were made during the Thunder Valley Rally event this weekend in Old Town Cottonwood. Arrest included 48 year old Sedona resident Geoffrey Cox for Disorderly Conduct and Criminal Damage after pulling a parked motorcycle over onto its side, 34 year old Cottonwood resident David Contreras for Disorderly Conduct and an active Warrant, 22 year old Camp Verde resident Misael Guzman for Disorderly Conduct Discharging a Firearm after Guzman reportedly "Accidentally" fired a weapon into the hood of car while pulling it from a holster, and 21 year old Camp Verde resident Joshua Loza for Trespassing, Disorderly Conduct, and Resisting an Officer, after he refused to leave a local bar in Old Town after repeated request to do so and becoming aggressive toward patrons and the responding officers. Another male subject was arrested during the event for Assault but the name was not available at press time. During this weekend's Thunder Valley Rally, Cottonwood Police also responded, but no arrest were made, to several calls of Disorderly Conduct, 1 Domestic Violence, 2 Fights, 1 Criminal Damage in which a patron's property in Old Town had been destroyed, and a Stolen Vehicle.
