Cottonwood Area Transit Has a Record Month in July, Providing Nearly 13,000 Rides to People in Cottonwood, Clarkdale, Verde Villages, and Sedona.

The numbers are in for July and they are looking good for Cottonwood Area Transit. July marked the highest rider count in Cottonwood Area Transit's history with a total of 12,892 total riders for the month. This total is broken down as follows – CAT Fixed Route – 6,192, a record high for the fixed route service; CAT Paratransit (ADA) – 1,175, a new record high for the ADA service; LYNX – 5,525, not a record month, but a very nice increase over the last few months during and after the Slide Fire.

We would like to thank the people of Cottonwood, Clarkdale, Verde Villages, and Sedona for putting your faith and trust in CAT/LYNX for your transportation needs. It is our goal to provide the best service we can for Cottonwood and the surrounding areas and look forward to continuing to serve you in the future. Please feel free to contact us if you have any questions or comments. You may contact the CAT office at (928) 634-2287 or by email at transit@cottonwoodaz.gov.

Cottonwood Area Transit provides ADA Paratransit and four fixed routes serving Cottonwood, Clarkdale and Verde Villages, with intercity commuter service to Sedona via Verde Lynx.
