Author Sebastian DiGiovanni at the Cottonwood Public Library

The Cottonwood Public Library hosts local author Sebastian DiGiovanni on Wednesday, December 5, 2012, from 11:45 am to 1:00 pm in the Youth Services Program Room.

“Rules of an intelligence agent: Admit nothing. Deny everything. Make counter accusations. Demand proof.”

So begins Sebastian DiGiovanni’s “Author’s Note” in his book Survive Your Tour in Peace & War, an unofficial military guide of sorts. This book is for anyone interested in the military. There are also practical tips for survivalists, campers, and history buffs.

DiGiovanni writes from experience. He has ten years in the military with back-to-back tours in the combat theater of Iraq and a hardship tour in Korea.

Works in progress (and perhaps completed) include a collaboration with his partner Hydie Henson DiGiovanni on a fictional novel Anodes Diner due out the end of October, 2012. DiGiovanni says, “This is a collection of short stories written by the two of us. I am told it is reminiscent of The Twilight Zone and Outer Limits.” The next project is a 9-book series called The Asylum Chronicles.

Mark your calendar for December 5th. Come to the library and listen to Sebastian DeGiovanni speak! The library is located at 100 S 6th St in Cottonwood. Call 928-634-7559.
