

Come join the fun and excitement!

Celebrate Historic 89A and the City of Cottonwood's 50th Anniversary with "Walkin' on Main", November 9th, from 11am-5pm. The Old Town Cottonwood Historic District, which sits between Jerome and Sedona, will be blocked off from traffic.

- Verde Valley winemakers and vineyards will be hosting an outdoor wine tasting
- The Mingus Union Art Club will be creating art, live before your eyes, on the street sidewalks.
- Two big tents will contain a juried art show, surrounded by the charming galleries, shops and local foods of Old Town Cottonwood.
- Live music plays throughout the day. The main stage will feature some the state's best entertainers.
- Rounding out the event will be displays from local historical societies, antique and classic cars organized by the Mingus Union Hot Rod Club, and self-guided historic tours of Old Town Cottonwood.

Please visit walkinonmain.com for more information!